Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Everett Scott, on June 30th, a boy. As this is Everett's first-born, he was very anxious to have him weighed. So he went to several of our stores to get a pair of scales to weigh his boy. It was hard to find a pair that would draw over 15 pounds. So finally he went to a neighbor and borrowed a pair that would draw 25 pounds, and when he weighed his boy, to his surprise he only weighed 8 pounds. Everett has been waiting for the Democrats to nominate a President at Frisco, as he wanted to name him after the next President of the U. S.—and his name is James.
